Deriving value from hospital ePrescribing and medicines administration systems to improve safe, effective and person centred care - A symposium for the health service, 17th June 2013

Venue: The Royal Society, London

09:30   Registration and Coffee

09:55   Opening comments from Professor Aziz Sheikh

Chair for Keynote Presentations am: Professor Munir Pirmohamed

10:00   Keynote 1
Developing a toolkit for the safe implementation of hospital ePrescribing and medicines administration systems
Dr Jamie Coleman

10:30   Networking and Coffee / Meet the suppliers

11:00   Keynote 2
The lie of the land and future directions: the English Health Informatics Strategy and relevance to EPMA
Keith Ridge DoH

11:30   WORKSTREAMS PART 1

12:30   Lunch and poster viewing

13:30   WORKSTREAMS PART 2

Chair for Keynote Presentation pm: Professor Bryony Dean Franklin

14:30   Keynote 3
International developments in hospital ePrescribing and medicines administration systems with a focus on integrated solutions across care boundaries
Professor Denis Protti

15:10   Networking and coffee/meet the suppliers

15:40   Keynote 4
Lessons from meaningful use: implications for the UK
Professor David Bates

16:20   Closing comments and evaluation
Professor Aziz Sheikh & Dr Jamie Coleman

16:30   Depart

Conference streams

	Stream 1 – interdisciplinary working	Stream 2 – project management (ASI chairing)	Stream 3 - financial case and realising returns of investment
Morning	User engagement, involvement and expectations (Ken Eason)	System configuration and business as normal (Kathy Wallis, Andrew Heed)	Developing a business case (Robin Williams)
Afternoon	Training and workforce development (Neil Watson)	Specialist prescribing challenges – mental health, paediatrics, chemotherapy (Neil Caldwell, Anthony Oxley, Julie Mansell)	Measuring benefits and generating ROIs (Richard, David)