

ePrescribing: Looking Backwards and Forwards – From Implementation and Adoption to Organisational Transformation and Patient Benefits

24th February 2016 in London Royal College of GPs

09:30 Registration and Coffee

9:45 Welcome address, Professor Mike Pringle, Past President, RCGP

10:00 Overview of Programme contributions and implications for future ePrescribing deployments and research
Professor Aziz Sheikh, University of Edinburgh

Presentation of Programme findings

10:10 Lessons learned from early implementers: procurement, implementation, adoption and connectivity
Professor Robin Williams, Institute for the Study of Science, Technology and Innovation, The University of Edinburgh

10.40 Assessing the impact on prescribing safety and quality of care
Professor Jamie Coleman, University of Birmingham

11.10 Networking and coffee/meet the suppliers

11.40 Economic analysis and value of investment analysis
Professor Richard Lilford, University of Warwick

11.55 The ePrescribing Toolkit
Dr Kathrin Cresswell, The University of Edinburgh

12:10 Maximising the opportunity for partnership with patients, carers and members of the public
Dr Ann Robertson and Antony Chuter, The University of Edinburgh

12:25 Lessons learned from managing large Programme Grants
Dr Lucy McCloughan, The University of Edinburgh

12:40 Lunch

13:40 Interactive panel discussion: policy implications and future developments
Chair: Jamie Coleman, University of Birmingham

Ann Slee, NHS England, Eddie Turnbull, The Scottish Government and Simon Denegri, National Institute for Health Research

14.15 Update on the Wachter Review
Chair, Aziz Sheikh, The University of Edinburgh

Harpreet Sood, NHS England, Ann Slee NHS England, and Richard Lilford, University of Warwick

14:40            Networking and coffee/meet the suppliers

Chair for Keynote Presentations: Professor Aziz Sheikh

15:10            Keynote: Learning lessons from the international community: maximising benefits and realising returns on investment
Professor David Bates, Harvard Medical School

16:00            Closing comments and evaluation
Professor Aziz Sheikh, The University of Edinburgh and Professor Jamie Coleman, University of Birmingham

16:15            Depart