

Specialist Parkinson's Integrated Rehabilitation Team Trial

As it is the end of the 6th cohort, we would like you to reflect on your role in the MDT as well as how the team is working. Please consider the pros and cons, what has changed since the earlier cohorts, how things may have improved, how team working affects your input and because of the team configuration any differences made to key case studies.